

cella

Lines 1-2. Why is Currax hurrying through the city? (2)

He's leading Gisco and Catia (1) to the Subura (1) servum Rūfina videt (line 2). Which is the correct translation?

(a) The enslaved boy sees Rufina.

(b) Rufina sees the enslaved boy.

Explain how you know your choice is correct. (2)

(b) – servum is accusative or Rufina is nominative

In lines 4-5 how many people does Currax say he has with him? (1)

Three

Do you think Celer is a good name for a dog? Explain your answer. (1) celer = fast. Dogs run fast, or similar

Lines 6-8. Which two of the following statements are true? (2)

(A) Her son is held by Catia.

(B) The boy's father strokes the dog.

(C) Rufina is pleased to see the dog.

(D) There is a lot of beer on offer.

A and B

Why do you think Rufina offers Gisco and Catia food and drink? (1)

To encourage them to stay, to welcome them, or similar Lines 10-12. Currax praises the room.

(i) What two details of this praise does Currax give? (3)

Very (1) quiet (1) very good/excellent (1) view

(ii) Do you think these details are likely to be true. Explain your answer. (2)

It was a noisy district (1) most buildings were high (1) and close together (1) – any two

Line 14. What two things make the dog bark? (4)

A tile (1) falls (1) a dove flies (1) through the hole (1)

Give two things that we learn about the rat in lines 15-16. (2)

It's big (1) it runs in through the door (1) it lives in the room (1) - any two

Total: 20 marks